

A built-in access control system for elevators and turnstiles that enables faster response time without compromising security

- KONE Access ensures optimal usability and easy integration with building access management system
- It works as one unified system to provide an efficient and personalized user experience

COST SAVINGS

- The costs, complexity, and coordination associated with installing, managing, and developing parallel systems are reduced.

SECURITY

- Protect data with secured firewalls and ensure no one hacks system with strong cybersecurity

EASY MANAGEMENT

- KONE Access API supports easy integration with third-party services

INCREASED REDUNDANCY

- System runs independently as a backup in case building access systems are unavailable

KONE ACCESS

KONE Access